Ann Struttmann, Purchasing	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Spencer Boyd, AT&T	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Peter S. Vogt, AT&T	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

II. Conference with AT&T

Ann Struttmann asks Peter Vogt, AT&T, to clarify the charges and request a refund of approximately $2,800.00 be returned to Franklin County due to overpayment. Peter clarified that AT&T takes several months to catch up and internal tickets were submitted. Peter further stated the credits and billing rates should be corrected and caught up by the end of the month. Peter said the documentation will show the correct rates and refund amount.

Ann stated that EMA had issues with Mitel and services were not available for a month in September. Peter will get the information regarding Mitel services and interruptions.

Todd asks for more information on the Mobility/FirstNet side of the AT&T billing and how to reduce account costs. Spencer recommended all lines should be switched over to FirstNet. Ann explained there are some accounts that must remain separate due to agency grant reporting. Spencer will get a usage report to Ann by the end of this week.

III. Adjournment

No further business at this time.
